LATE TELEGRAMS.

Five Thousand Pounds Stolen. London, June 30 .- It has been reported to the police that while the messeng r of a firm of stockbrokers in Glasgow was about to pay a sum of £545! into the Bank of Scotland he discovered that £5 0, in bank notes had been stolen.

Railways in China. Viscount Cranborno stated-in the House of Commons last night that the negotiations begun in 1899 on behalf of the Peking syndicate to construct a railway from Peking to the Yangtsze were still proceeding.

America and Germany. The German Emperor has made a personal inspection of the United States warship Kearsings. His action in that respect is considered to be a great breach of-naval etiquette, and Americans regard his conduct with suspicion. Newspapers of the United States have expressed themselves as being amused at the effusive compliments bestowed by the German-Emperor on the American squadron at Kiel, and describe him as a great actor with the whole world as his audience. Those newspapers recall how near the Germans and the Americans were to fighting at Manila Bay is 1898 and at Apia

The college will be a school of the University and will work in co-operation with the Central Technical College, the Royal College of Science, and other institutions. The College will have branches, with facilities for original research.

Lord Rosebery in his letter unfolding the scheme asks the London County Council to undertake the cost of maintenance of la the college, amounting to £20,000 a year. He emphasises the importance of the picked | 245 students of the motherland and the colonies finding opportunities for advanced education within the Empire,

The newspapers recognise the importance of Lord Rosebury's scheme from the standpoint of training British mining engineers metallurgists, and chemists. The money for the scheme has already been found. Among the contributors are Lord Strathcona, High Commissioner for Canada, and Sir Ernest Cassel. It is reported that the idea of establishing a College of Applied Science, which has the approval of the King, is practically-the conception of Mr R. B. Haldane, M.P., and that the gentleman spent months at Charlottenburg evolving the scheme.

Mr Emmott declares that the white people of the self-governing colonies take £5 of British goods per head, and not £10 as represented by Mr Chamberlain, In his speech at the Constitutional Club on June 26, Mr Chamberlain suggested whether the exports of British manufacture to the colonies did not exceed the exports 2.00 to all the protected States of Europe and 2.50 America. That group of exports i.e., to 40.00 3.50 the protected States of Europe and America-Mr Chamberlain affirmed, was continually and rapidly decreasing in quantity and profitable character. He would ask them whether it would not be wiser to cultivate the trade of ten million of their kinsmen, taking Irom Great Britain exports to the value of £10 a head, than to lose the opportunity for unity for the sake of attempting to consiliate three hundred million foreigners taking from Great Britain a few shilling of export per head.

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha proposes t increase the amount of the debentures which it is authorised to issue. The amount approved at a meeting of shareholders in April 1900 was Y4,000,000, of which Y3,500,000 has already been issued. It is now proposed (says the Kabe Chronide) to increase the authorised amount Y5,500,000. While the company is not want of capital at present, it is thought advisable, as its business is rapidly increasma, to be prepared to raise debentures at any time the construction of new steamers may become necessary. The proposal is to be laid before a general meeting called for Dalkeith Palace. the 22nd inst. It seems to us that the company makes a mistake in loading its finances with interest-paying debentures, the quotation of which is likely to decrease as their amount_increases. Nor is it quite fair to existing debenture-holders to put more debentures market unless those originally issued are given priority, which does not seem to be proposed. The capital of the company is now five and a half millions, and it is therefore proposed to make the debentures equal the capital. We doubt if this policy is to be commended.

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION. (Before His Honour Sir William Goodman, Chief Justice.) Wednesday, July 29.

CLEARING THE TRIAL LIST. This 'morning, Suit No. 91 of 1899, Lee Yew Nam and others w. Kwong Hung Shau, was called for hearing.

Upon the cause being called, Mr Seth said-No one appears, my Lord ; there are solicitors on the record-Messra Wilkinson and Grist and Messrs Desconand Hastings. His Lordship-I understand the defend ants contend that the case was settled by arrangement some time ago, plaintiffs have not come here to dispute that statement?

Mr Soth- No. His Lordship-Well, I think I must deal with the case under Section 296 of the Civil Code. That section says that when a cause is called on for trial if neither party appears the Court may, if it thinks fit, strike the cause out of the trial paper under Section 296 of the Code. I would like to make one or two observations with regard to the delay on the part of the parties in bringing on causes for trial which eve been down for trial a long time and

and, have been transferred in due course from the General trial list to the trial paper. A case is set down for trial in the General paper when the parties apply to the Court to have it set down In due course, it is transferred from that toeneral trial list to what is called in the Code the trial paper. Well, then, in due course, notice of that is given to the parties, and they ought to he ready for the case to, be heard when it is reached in consecutive order. Now, some time ago, I looked carefully through the trial paper, the paper of causes ripo for hearing and only awaiting hearing by the Court whom the Court has an opportunity, and I noticed That, at the head of that trial paper there were threeactions, which, it appears to me, ought to have been disposed of long ago. The first of these was the case No. 85 of 1899, Hung Man Yuk and another v. Ng Lee Hing, and that was set down on the trial paper on the 30th July, 1960. That is practically three years ago. Yet, neither, of the parties brought that case on, and here was an old case with which nothing was being done and no stops had been taken for three years. I called attention to that and I peremptorily fixed this day, 29th July, giving parties due notice, for the hearing of the case. The result of that was that the parties withdrew the case, showing that it was only encombering the list and that they did not wish to go on with the case on either side. It was a claim of a trade mark and goodwill. They should have communicated with the Registry and had the case struck off the list. I took the same steps and fixed to day for the hearing of this present case, Lee Yow Nam and other's shortcomings. others v. Kwong Hung Shau. That has been set down for trial on the trial paper since the end of November, 1901. Now, it appears that neither party is prepared to go on with the case or wishes to go on with it, and some paper has been filed by the defendants thomselves from which they seem to have settled the matter by some reference in China, much of the subject matter of the case having taken place in China. This document is right to say that the defendant's solicitor gave notice of that in the Registry, but ! should like to point out that the proper tigresses. party to give that notice is the solicitor for the plaintiff. Section 317 of the Code says that 'If an action is settled by mutual agreehe recorded and the action to be disposed of in accordence therewith, and then subsection 2 of the same Section 317 says that by the plaintiff or if a solicitor is employed made, and in default thereof the plaintiff or his solicitor as the case may be should be deemed guilty of contempt of Court and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished secondparties wishes to go on with this case. If Viceroy of India. He were the ribbon of I had not taken this peremptory step of fixing this day, this case would have remained bering the list and making it appear as it the delay was in this Court in not hearing the case. There was a third case which I had-fixedfor to-day, and which was begun before the others. It was begun in 1896. and, it was set down in the trial paper to come on for trial in February of 1901. and that it was now due to her position Neither party took any steps to bring it on. It was a claim for injunction and damage The result of my fixing to day was that of the defendants asking further security for costs as the plaintiff was a person resident out of the jurisdiction of the Court : and I granted an order requiring $3000 more to be given as security for costs within three weeks, and if that was not done the action should stand-dismissed, with costs. Now. I only make these remarks as I see there are some other actions which have been put down for hearing, none, I think, now at an rearlier stage than last year. I want to point out that if there is delay in settling those matters the delay is of the Court. On the part of the Court there is a strong desire that justice should

some valid reason why they should not be total pay actually tried. Recently. #### PECULIAR PEOPLE

Daisy Greens,-No. II.

I saw her first at the bar of the Samoy

Mixed Club. Sho was smoking a cigarette and taking occasional sips at a sherry-and bitters. She was surrounded by a crowd of men, who all called her "Daisy." She was fair and healthy to look upon and brimful of merriment. She seemed to have a lot to say and her manner of saying i was so irresistible that the almost continual roar of laughter from her crowd of admire. made ordinary conversation impossible Even two old men, who were discussing teals and rice in a far corner, gave it up, and joined the edge of the crowd, evidently thinking that they could not afford to miss was, to me, a somewhat unusual sight.

The pillars of Samoy Society consisted of twenty-six married ladios, who all got their dresses out from home, who all had their first and third Wednesdays or second and fourth Tuesdays, as the case might be, and were all more or less happy after the manner of their kind, husbands, where a big Ladies' Room, sumptuously furnished by Liberty, had been set apart for their use. Hero they talked babies and dresses and servants to their heart's content-some drinking the baneful cherry brandy and others the more deadly lime squash. (It is true that the Club possessed a patent lime-squeezer, sion. but the Chinese bar-boy was conservative and preferred to express the juice with his own delicate hands, thereby endowing it with a fuller flavour : I watched him at it

At about eight o'clock, each fair dame tore her husband away from bridge, bar, or billiards, and with him drove home to seek dinner and the early rest which made it possible to endure the bracing climate of Samoia for one more day. Each of the twenty-six was a leader of Society, and each was an equal among equals, and all intercalled and inter-dined at more or less regular intervals. They addressed each other as babies-new consignments of the latter charitable in their estimates of one ansuployed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind and surpasses everything hitherto employed. in a remarkably short time, often a few days only, removes all discharges from the urmary organs, superseding injections, the use of which does irre-parable harm by laving the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. @

THERAPION No. 2. for impurity of the blood, scurry, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of the joints, secondary symptoms, Hout, theumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of sufferers' theth and rain of health. This proparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body. THERAPION No. 3 for nervous exhaustion, impaired vitality, sleeplessness, and all the distressing consequences of early error, excess, residence in hot, unbealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and rigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION is sold by all Chemists and Merchants throughout the World. Price in England 2/0 & 4/6.
